AFSC's Women in Ag Award winner Josie Pashulka won the Operator/Primary Producer Award at the 2025 Women in Ag Conference. Josie has been an Alberta Beef Producers delegate for five years, advocating for producers and strengthening the industry. She has also served as an auditor for VBP+ (Verified Beef Production) for 12 years, assessing beef operations for on-farm food safety, helping to ensure best practices across the industry. Through her work at Lakeland College, she has trained countless students in artificial insemination, helping to shape the future of livestock management. Josie's passion for agriculture, her tireless work ethic, and her unwavering support of others have made a lasting impact on the industry.
